Introduction

Welcome to Astrapharm

Since 1990, we have been providing safe and effective poultry medicines from top international partners. Our goal is simple: healthier flocks, stronger farms. Led by Dr. Emad Younes and Amr Emad, we are dedicated to supporting your success in the poultry industry.

About Us

Founded in 1990 in El Giza, AstraPharm brings high-quality poultry medicines from global markets to farmers and veterinarians. With nearly seven international partners, including Vetogen, Alphasan, Evridai, RobaPharm, and our main partner, we ensure access to trusted, innovative solutions. Led by Dr. Emad Younes and Amr Emad, we are committed to advancing poultry health worldwide.
